

The Clothesline Project

Tuesday, April 9
9:00 a.m.— 3:00 p.m.
Fullerton College Quad

The Clothesline Project was created to bring awareness to the issue of interpersonal violence. For those who have been affected by violence, it is a means of expressing their emotions by decorating a t-shirt. After the shirts have been decorated, they are hung on a clothesline display. The intention of the display is to honor survivors and act as a memorial for victims. It is also intended to aid in the healing process for those who were directly affected and those who have lost someone special to violence. Lastly, the clothesline display educates members of society and promotes social awareness, while bearing witness to the devastating impact of violent crime.
